

Osama Al Mosa

Senior Leadership Development Consultant

Osama is a senior Executive, Leadership and Team coach. An ICF (International Coach Federation) accredited Master Certified Coach (MCC) with more than ten years of coaching experience and more than 7,500 hours of coaching

Osama is a bilingual Arabic/ English a global associate for world leading leadership development firms empowering senior leaders and leadership teams at Fortune 500 Corporatios, World Bank Group, and United Nations.

Osama combines his leadership development credentialing, his academic background in psychology and his corporate managerial experience to conduct different learning and development interventions to support senior leaders, directors, managers and high potential employees. He is a very seasoned executive coaches, an ICF ACSTH approved coach trainer, an ICF coach mentor, an ICF coach assessor and one of the most senior ICF recognized coaches in the Arab world and the MENA regions with breadth of coaching experience, and global corporate mindset”

Osama got his coaching qualifications from the most reputable international schools and has been trained in a variety of evidence based methodologies.

He comes with a unique extensive practical and diverse experience in leading operations, teams and organizations; prior to focusing his practice on leadership development and professional coaching, Osama had 18 years of leadership experience at Fortune 100 corporates spanning the MENA region.

Osama is the founder and a former President of the International Coach Federation Chapter in Jordan, the Founding President of Amman Agora speakers, the Board Chair of the 3rd and the 4th ICF Middle East Prism Award, EthicalCoach volunteer, the Vice President of ICF Global Dispute Resolution Panel, and a board member of ICF global Arabic language translation taskforce. He is also a very active in volunteering to support Startup Businesses, Entrepreneurial Initiatives, capacity building and social impact projects.

Osama academic back ground in Psychology, Business Management and his first university degree was in the Pharmaceutical Technologies.

